Provide a brief biography of the nominated individual/organisation

I'm Rachana Gupta, the founder and CEO of Oraanj Interior Design, a design studio based in London where we create bespoke, high-quality interiors for homes, offices, and hospitality spaces. With over 20 years of experience in the interior design world, I've had the privilege of transforming countless spaces into environments that are not only beautiful but also functional and deeply personal to those who use them. My journey began with a Bachelor's in Commerce from the University of Calcutta, followed by a qualification in Fashion Design from the National Institute of Fashion Design, Kolkata. Eventually, I pursued Interior Design at the British Academy of Interior Design, which gave me the skills to blend my creative passion with the technical know-how required to bring design ideas to life. In 2004, I founded Oraanj with the belief that every space should reflect its owner's personality and lifestyle. Since then, I've had the pleasure of leading Oraanj through more than 70 projects, each one an opportunity to push creative boundaries while staying true to our values of timeless design and attention to detail. I'm proud that Oraanj has become known for its distinctive blend of modern and Scandinavian-inspired aesthetics, with a focus on making each space not just visually appealing, but practical and comfortable too. Sustainability is important to me, and I'm committed to using eco-friendly materials and design practices to make sure we're contributing to a healthier planet while creating stunning interiors. Every project we undertake—from luxury homes to innovative office spaces to dynamic hospitality environments is a reflection of my belief that good design can enrich lives and inspire those who experience it. As I continue to lead Oraanj, I remain passionate about setting new standards in the industry, creating spaces that not only serve their purpose but also resonate emotionally with those who interact with them.
